GREATEST OF GATHERINGS

Unexcelled In Years For Numbers And Enthusiasm.
REMAINED IN SESSION ALL NIGHT

Hot Contest For Minor Officers—Means Had No Show and Paul B. Means Was Missed While Nominating Him.

The Telegram yesterday told of the great number at the convention in Raleigh, and the unbounded enthusiasm that existed. No such gathering has met in the State in years. After the convention adjourned till the final adjournment this morning at 8:40, after all the business was transacted. From the News and Observer and the Charlotte Observer we give a detailed account of the convention yesterday and last night. And from our own special, the nominations made early this morning.

Exactly at 7:15 o'clock, State Chairman F. M. Simmons stepped forward. As he did so some one proposed three cheers to Hon. F. M. Simmons. They were given with a will. "The convention," he said when order had been restored, "will stand while the Rev. T. N. Ivy, editor of the Christian Advocate, offers prayer."

Dr. Ivy asked divine guidance and wisdom upon the convention, "may men be selected who love country, love right and all that is good, true and beautiful, may harmony and good feeling prevail and may all things work together for the good of the State and for the promotion of the welfare of the homes of the land and moral and civil freedom."

The secretary called the roll and every county in the state having been found fully represented by duly accredited delegates, Chairman Simmons named the following temporary organization:

Secretaries: W. C. Dowd, of Charlotte; John C. Lamb, of Martin, and all Democratic delegates present. Reading Clerks: Stephen McIntyre, of Robeson, and E. B. Lewis, of Lenoir.

Sergeants at Arms: Geo. F. Kennedy, of Wake, assistants, Wiley V. Clifton, Samuel Hunter and W. L. Davis.

After stating the objects for which the convention was called, Chairman Simmons added:

"Such a call of the roll of counties has perhaps never before occurred in the history of this State. It shows every county in the State fully represented by duly accredited delegates."

Mr. Simmons continued speaking in regard to party policy, organization, a history of the party since the last campaign, and the policy of the party in the coming contest.

"Our organization is in a state of unusual excellence and efficiency. Its prospects are bright and victory is assured."

"Before this campaign is over there will be such a coming together of the white people on the Constitutional Amendment, as has never before been known in the State, (applause.) And when the day of voting comes, the majority given for this measure will be such as to absolutely crush the advocates of Negro Rule, (applause.)"

"We have deflected the negro lovers and we mean to keep them deflected. The people of North Carolina have decided to stop Negro Rule and restore White Supremacy. We did this in 1898, and now it will take more soldiers than Mr. McKinley can spare from fighting in the Philippines to put the negro collar back on us." (Prolonged applause.)

Speaking of the fact that it would be the duty of the convention to nominate delegates to the national convention, Mr. Simmons said:

"Four years ago we didn't even know that the delegates we sent to Chicago would have the manhood and the bravery to meet the issue squarely. But they did. They went back to first principles. They deposed the faithless leaders that had delivered us to the republican gold standard and restored the democracy of Jefferson and Jackson. They nominated that splendid man and matchless leader, Wm Jennings Bryan. (Wild applause, lasting nearly a minute and ending with 'three cheers for Bryan.')"

"White men, of North Carolina, for when I look upon this convention, it seems to me all the white men of North Carolina are here, I bring you tidings of great joy. I have been looking over the field and studying the situation and I tell you here today, three months before the election, that the Constitutional Amendment will be adopted, a democratic state ticket will be elected and a democratic legislature will be chosen." (Applause.)

Concluding his speech, Mr. Simmons named as temporary chairman of the convention, Mr. E. Y. Webb, of Cleveland county, declaring him to be "a magnificent specimen of the fighting young democracy of the state."

The convention received Mr. Webb with enthusiastic applause and heard with cheers, his speech. It was for him to make the first mention of Chas. B. Aycock's name, and this produced a scene second only to that caused by Mr. Simmons' reference to William J. Bryan.

The various congressional districts were then called for appointment of their members of the various committees and their delegates to the national convention.

This done, the convention adjourned for an hour and a half for dinner. During the recess the committees met as follows, and accomplished the work allotted to them by the convention:

Credentials, in the Academy of Music. Organization and Rules, in the court house. Platform, in the Mayor's office.

When the convention met again at 3 o'clock, Capt. R. R. Peebles reported for the committee on Credentials that they had found only one dispute as to representations, that was in Rockingham and as to whether it was entitled to 17 or 18 votes. The committee had given it 18.

The report was adopted. Mr. J. Frank Ray made the report for the Committee on Organization and Rules, and was as follows:

Vice-Presidents, E. F. Aydtlett, J. M. Gidger, R. C. Smith, Joseph P. Caldwell and W. W. Barber. The other temporary officers were made permanent, with the addition of E. E. Britton and Walker Murphy to the secretaries.

The rules of the House of Representatives were adopted as far as they were applicable to the convention.

Mr. Blair, of Caldwell, objected to the proposition to vote for the two Corporation Commissioners together. He wanted them nominated separately. He moved that the rules be changed to this effect. This motion was voted down by a big majority by a roll call vote.

The report of the committee was then adopted and Messrs. C. H. Stedman, J. H. Murchison and P. S. Spruill were appointed to escort to the rostrum Mr. Lee S. Overman, the permanent chairman. On assuming the gavel, Mr. Overman said, among other things:

"We are here, representatives of the people of the democratic party to save North Carolina from domination and degradation (applause) and a voice: 'Hurrah for the best looking man in the state.'"

"The constitutional amendment that we offer to the people of North Carolina is not only a political necessity, but it is a social necessity. Our manhood demands it (applause), our womanhood demands it (applause), our children demand it, our institutions demand it, good government demands it. Down with Russellism and Butlerism (Loud applause and cheering.) Twice have we redeemed North Carolina from negro rule and we will redeem it twice and redeem it forever. (Wild applause.)"

"The next business before this convention is the nomination for governor, cheers and calls for Justice, who, it was understood would place Mr. Aycock in nomination."

Mr. Justice responded to the call and made a short brilliant speech, placing Mr. Aycock's name before the convention. The nomination was seconded by Mr. E. W. Fow. Both of these speeches were model ones and made a deep impression upon the convention. On the conclusion of Mr. Fow's speech, Mr. E. B. Norvell, of Cherokee, moved to nominate Mr. Aycock by acclamation. The vote was one prolonged "Aye."

The chairman announced Chas. B. Aycock, of Wayne, as nominee of the convention, and appointed Messrs. Locke Craig and Walter E. Neal to conduct Mr. Aycock to the rostrum that the convention might see him.

The delegates received their new-made candidate standing and cheering like Apache Indians. The applause and cheers swelled and burst and swelled again and would not cease until the band struck up "Dixie."

When the music ceased the quiet of a church settled over the convention and, save for the appreciative applause, lasted till the last word was uttered.

The speech was a masterly review of the recent political history of the state, and of the cause leading up to the present condition of affairs.

LEUTENANT GOVERNOR. The next matter taken up was the nomination of Lieutenant Governor. W. D. Turner of Iredell, and J. S. Cunningham, of Person, were nominated. Turner was nominated on fourth vote, 555 to 415.

SECRETARY OF STATE. On the second ballot for secretary of state the vote was Grimes 415, McLean 372, Lewellyn 133, Wood 51. Third ballot: Grimes 456, McLean 323, Lewellyn 117, Wood 76. Before the fourth ballot was taken McLean, Lewellyn and Wood withdrew, and Grimes was nominated by acclamation.

AUDITOR. The next business was the nomination for Auditor. W. W. Barber placed in nomination Frank D. Hackett, E. Y. Webb did the same for B. F. Dixon and Editor Blair, of the Lenoir Topic, for W. S. Pearson. The ballot resulted: Dixon 545, Pearson 247, Hackett 174. Dixon's nomination was made unanimous.

TREASURER. The selection of a candidate for Treasurer same next. W. I. Everett was placed in nomination by John S. Lockhart; W. H. S. Burgwyn by J. B. Pittman; B. R. Lacy by J. D. McCall; J. D. Boushall by Locke Craig. The first ballot resulted: Lacy 362, London 243, Burgwyn 132, Everett 137, Boushall 108. Second ballot: Lacy 508, London 251, Burgwyn 57, Everett 62, Boushall 82. Before the vote was announced there was almost a stampede for Lacy. His nomination was made unanimous. SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION. For Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Long, of Alamance, was put in nomination by John M. Corley; Chas. H. Mebane by E. B. Cline; R. B. Hunter by F. I. Osborne; Ira P. Turlington by E. W. Poir; Rev. J. S. Horn by W. T. Cahoy; J. Allen Hold by Mayor Taylor, of Greensboro.

The stormiest scene of the entire convention occurred when Paul B. Means attempted to second Mr. Mebane's nomination. There was a storm of hisses and yells, lasting many minutes. When Charles Mebane rose there were hisses, but nothing like those which greeted Means' naming of him. Again and again he tried to speak. Then he stood with his arms folded. H. G. Conner asked that Means be heard, and then he was heard, saying that he would vote the solid Democratic ticket from Bryan down. He was so plucky that he was applauded. J. C. Caddell was placed in nomination; also T. F. Toob, B. F. Grady, C. L. Abernethy and J. S. Long.

The ballot resulted: Holt, 307; Toon, 267; J. S. Hill, 105; Mebane, 93; W. S. Long, 72; Turlington, 70; Grady, 50; Hunter, 47; Caddell, 18; Koonce, 11; Abernethy, 12; J. S. Long, 3. Many names were withdrawn. The second ballot resulted: Holt, 439; Toon, 395; W. S. Long, 95; Grady, 22; Mebane, 12; seaterling 17. Third ballot: Toon, 476; Holt, 474; Long, 2; Mebane, 1. The fourth, ballot resulted: Toon, 510; Holt, 462.

ATTORNEY GENERAL. For Attorney General, R. D. Gilmer, E. J. Justice, F. D. Winston and T. J. Jerome were placed in nomination. The first ballot resulted: Justice 246; Winston 317, Gilmer 317, Jerome 300.

Second ballot, Gilmer 376; Winston 238; Justice 192; Jerome 145. Third ballot, Winston withdrew, Gilmer 447; Justice 214; Jerome 115. Fourth 539.

THE PLATFORM. The following is the platform: The Democratic party of North Carolina hereby approves, endorses and ratifies the principles enumerated and set forth in the platform of the Democratic party of 1896. We denounce the tariff legislation of the Republicans which has increased the burdens of taxation upon our consumers and increased the powers of trusts and monopolies to rob the people. Believing that under our present method of Federal taxation more than three-fourths of our national revenues are paid by the people owning less than one-fourth of the property of the country, we protest against the inequality and injustice and in order to remedy to some extent this great wrong, we favor income tax and all constitutional methods to sustain it. We denounce the Republican party for its recent legislation by which the people of the territory acquired by the United States are taxed without representation and deprived of the protection afforded by the principle that the constitution follows the flag. We are in favor of peaceful commercial expansion, but denounce imperialism and militarism. We cordially invite all voters without regard to past political affiliation to stand with us in the support of our candidates for congress, who favor the principles of the Chicago platform. We admire the heroism and ability with which William J. Bryan has defended the principles of Democracy and hereby we instruct the North Carolina delegates to vote for his renomination.

We denounce the administration of the Republican party in high and responsible official positions which ought to have been filled by white people. We approve of the law of last year to prevent the removal of suits by foreign corporations from State to Federal Courts. We commend the legislation of the election law of last year. We favor economy in expenditures and the abolition of unnecessary offices. We commend the legislative appropriation of $100,000 for the public schools and pledge ourselves to increase the school fund so as to give at least four months term in each school district. We point with pride to the democratic record in the building and management of institutions for the care of the insane and pledge the party to increase the appropriations for this purpose, so every needy insane person in the state may be cared for at public expense. We approve of the act creating the corporation commission and of the administration of affairs by the commission, by which fairer rates have been secured, which are more just to the people and to the transportation and transmission corporations, and we approve such assessment of railroad property as will make it bear its proportion of taxation. We condemn free passes. We denounce all trusts, monopolies and trade combinations and demand the passage of such legislation, state or national, as will suppress the same. We favor the election of United States Senators by the people. We favor the law for holding primaries for the nomination of State and county officers. We hereby instruct the State executive committee to provide for the holding of a primary on the first Monday in November for the selection of a Senator by the democratic voters, at which every elector who has voted the democratic ticket in the state election shall be entitled to vote for one man for the senate and the candidate receiving a majority of the votes shall receive the support of the democratic members of the legislature, and if none receive a majority, a second primary shall be held and the highest candidates be ballotted for and the one getting a majority be supported by the demo-

NOW FOR A TIDAL WAVE

Yesterday was one of the greatest and most enthusiastic political conventions which ever met in North Carolina. From every nook and corner of North Carolina, came the delegates, and with enthusiasm for the various candidates, and encouraged with devotion to the great cause of white supremacy.

Never was a political battle opened with more encouraging signs, and as the days go by and the enthusiasm increases, these assurances will grow brighter and brighter until they end in an overwhelming victory in November.

The ticket nominated is a good one. While all did not get their choice, they got a ticket upon which all can unite. It is an average ticket in ability, but perhaps above the average in safety. There are some very strong men on it, and to waste votes on the nomination for the head of the ticket is especially great, not only in the man himself, but in the fact that there was no contest, and the convention nominated him by unanimous acclamation. The ticket stands:

Governor—Chas. B. Aycock, of Wayne.

Lieut. Governor—W. D. Turner, of Iredell.

Secretary of State—J. Bryan Grimes, of Pitt.

Auditor—Dr. B. F. Dixon, of Cleveland.

Treasurer—B. R. Lacy, of Wake.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—T. F. Town, of Robeson.

Attorney General—R. D. Gilmer, of Haywood.

Commissioner of Agriculture—S. L. Patterson, of Caldwell.

Commissioner of Labor and Prisons—H. B. Varner, of Davidson.

Corporation Commissioner—Frank McNeill, of New Hanover.

Judge of the Tenth District—W. B. Gorton.

The ballot has begun.

AUGUST ELECTIONS.

States in Which They Will Be Held and Probable Results

This is a great election year. Of course public interest will center mainly on the election of president and vice-president and a new congress which will convene on Tuesday after the first Monday in November. On that day there will be a busy state election, but the fun will begin before November.

Eight states will hold elections between now and that month. These are Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Maine, North Carolina, and Vermont.

Rhode Island had her election Tuesday and went republican, of course. The results in these states will be of very little value as indications of the probabilities of the big election.

Alabama, Georgia, Arkansas, Louisiana and North Carolina are as certain to go democratic as Maine and Vermont will go republican, and as Rhode Island went republican Tuesday.

This is true in spite of the fact that North Carolina is now under a fusion government of populists and republicans, and that in Louisiana the regular democratic ticket is opposed by a fusion of bolting democrats, republicans and populists.

The next state election will be that of Louisiana, and it will occur April 17th.

More than usual interest attaches to this election because the legislature which will be chosen will select the successor to Senator Caffery. There is no regular rule as to the time the field, but there is an independent ticket backed by disgruntled democrats, populists and republicans. In the last election Governor Foster received a plurality of 55,183 in a total vote of 101,046. It is expected that the majority in the approaching election will be cut down from the foregoing figures, through the efforts of Senator Caffery, who is opposing the regular democratic ticket; but there is little, if any, doubt that the regular democratic ticket will be triumphant by a safe majority.

In North Carolina, whose election will occur August 2, there will be elected a governor and other state-house officers, and the people will vote on the constitutional amendment passed by the legislature and designed to virtually eliminate the black race from state politics. In the proposed

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.
Yes, August Flower will be the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers have used it for generations. Doctors were wrong, and they said that of appendicitis, severe prostration or heart failure. They said August Flower to clear out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the bowels and organs and action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headache and dizziness. You only need a few doses of Great's August Flower, in liquid form to make you satisfied there is nothing service the matter with you. For sale by Graham & Forsman.

FOR THE BABIES.
There is no better remedy for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and efficient cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures colic and the best used in case of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it quiets the tough, spasmodic, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. WE ARE ORIGINATORS:
Not Imitators!

White Delivery Wagons have been a distinguishing mark of the Greensboro Steam Laundry for a number of years. Our customers have learned to "look out for the white wagons."

Competitors have seen fit to imitate our wagons, therefore we deem it wise to make a change.

Our wagons are now in the shop. About May 1st they will come out green, our future color. In the mean time would respectfully request our friends and patrons to BEWARE of the white laundry wagons and see to it that the right driver gets the bundle. To avoid any possible confusion, in future our wagons will be lettered:

Disabled Horse.
The Telegram is informed that a dray horse is being regularly driven on the streets, that is disabled, and has been for several days. The officer whose business it is should look after this. The attention of the Telegram is called to it by a member of the board of Aldermen, and a prominent business man.

Delayed Shipment.
The new machinery purchased some weeks ago by Mr. Jno. M. Dick for the Greensboro Steam Laundry has been delayed by a press order at the manufactory. Mr. Dick received a telegram today saying that the new machines would go forward next Saturday, and in a week or ten days he hopes to be able to announce an increase in his equipment for doing first class work.

SONG RECITAL.
An Entertainment to be Given For The Colored People.

The Telegram is requested to print the following:
A sacred song recital will be given at the court house, Good Friday, April 13th, at 12 o'clock noon and at 8 o'clock at night, for the benefit of the colored people.

"You will do the greatest service to the State if you should raise, not at the roof of the house, but the soul of its citizens."

There is no day in the year that is more intrinsically sacred and more inculcatingly comforting to the Christian heart than Good Friday, so we propose by God's assistance to render such music to the service that will bring to our remembrance and Gethsemane and cross-wooded calvary.

Let all those who love the Lord bring some friends along with them remembering that you are your "Brother's keeper."

PROGRAM.
1 The Story of the Crucifixion...
2 If with all your heart (Elijah)...
3 O, Rest in the Lord (Elijah)...
4 All ye Work of the Lord (Bethoven)...
5 There is a Fountain Filled with Blood...
6 In the hour of trial...
7 The Seven Words of the Cross.

A silver offering will be taken to defray expenses.

Don't Miss This.

TELEGRAPH OPERATORS STRIKE.

THE "WALK OUT" MAY CAUSE MUCH TROUBLE.

Six Greensboro Operators Quit—Strike General Throughout the Southern and Western States.

Today at 11 o'clock six of the railway telegraph operators in the Southern offices in this city walked out on a strike. It has been rumored for several days that a strike among the members of the O. R. T. was imminent, and it did not come altogether as a surprise.

It will be remembered that two or three days ago a 10 per cent cut was made in the wages of employees of railroads who received over $80 per month. Certain classes of said employees, it is said have had the cut restored, but the telegraph operators are still left out.

The strike was ordered by Mr. M. V. Powell, of Peoria, Ill., who is president of the Order of Railway Telegraphers. Mr. Powell is now in Atlanta, and it is supposed that he is personally looking after the strike.

The striking operators here are receiving numerous messages this afternoon, encouraging them to hold out. The closing words of one of these messages were "We are sure to win."

Another message from Birmingham, Ala., says every man there walked out and that all railway lines are tied up hard and fast.

The strike is general throughout the Southern system from Washington, D. C. to Jackson, Miss., and with a few points tied up like Birmingham will cost many thousands of dollars in a very short while. The boys express themselves as being determined to hold out, but are confident the matter of salary will be adjusted and they will return to their posts.

Unless an early adjustment be reached there is some fear that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers may take up the matter and in that event the results would be even more disastrous.

BOSTON TEAM LEAVES.
Play in Washington Tomorrow—Manager Selee Goes to Norfolk.

The Boston baseball team, which has been in training in this city for the past two weeks, left today for Washington, where they play a game tomorrow with Princeton. Manager Selee went to Norfolk to prepare for the game there Saturday with Yale.

On Monday the Boston's will play a game at Atlantic City with the Toronto team; Tuesday with Worcester, at Worcester, Mass.; Wednesday with Providence; at Providence, R. I. On Thursday the season will open with a game between Boston and Philadelphia at Boston.

The champions were highly pleased with their stay in Greensboro and with the accommodations they received at Hotel Guilford. With the exception of the last two days the weather was fine for practice and Manager Selee says his team is in excellent trim. They confidently expect to win the championship again this season.

THE COLD SPELL.
Perhaps This is the Last One of the Season.

There will be a regular meeting of the Masonic lodge tonight at the usual hour.

Mr. P. A. Mitchell, of Graham, now in charge of republican headquarters here, moved his family to this city today. They will occupy Mr. J. A. Groome's house, corner Morehead avenue and spring street.

Mr. W. C. McLean, of the firm of J. W. Scott & Co., entered that store on April 10th, 1871, and for twenty-nine years has been actively engaged there. This is quite a long period of service, and in that time Mr. McLean has seen a great growth of the business.

Entertainment at A. & M. College.
To the Editor of the Telegram.

Friday evening the Eclectic Literary Society of the A. & M. College will render its regular program, the main feature of which will be a lecture by Miss Mary E. Harper. Miss Harper is a graduate of the National School of Education and Oratory, and we bespeak for those who may attend a most enjoyable evening.

The service begins at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend. Monday night Miss Harper will read in the college chapel. Every one should avail himself of the opportunity of hearing her as her elocutionary talents are said to be of a very high order. The admission fee will be ten cents.

Help or They Perish.

LET IT COME TO GREENSBORO.

CONVENTION IS TIRED OF MEETING IN RALEIGH

The Suggestion That it be Moved Received With Applause—Next One for Greensboro.

The next Democratic Convention may be had to meet in Greensboro by anything like an effort. The opposition to meeting in Raleigh has been growing very strong of late years. The inadequacy of the accommodations, the prevailing idea that the Wake people try to put too big a paddle into the political sea, and the fact that the place is not centrally located as some others, all help to make up the cumulative opinion that Raleigh will lose the convention. An occurrence yesterday showed the temper of the delegates this year on the subject.

When the convention had assembled its afternoon session, and before the body had been called to order, Maj. T. L. Emery, of Weldon, one of the most prominent business men in Eastern North Carolina, addressed the delegates on a subject of particular interest to the assembly.

He spoke of the inadequacy of the accommodations and unsatisfactory arrangements afforded by Raleigh, asserting that such conditions had always existed. He said that other towns in North Carolina would gladly care for the convention and guarantee that the delegates would be treated in a most comfortable and convenient manner.

Major Emery closed his speech with these words: "Gentlemen of the convention, I move that the assembled Democrats of North Carolina do hereby instruct the executive committee to never again call a State convention to meet in Raleigh." The words had scarcely left his mouth before scores of delegates had seconded the motion, and when the question was stated it was carried almost unanimously.

The Wake county and a few other delegates voting in the negative.

Major Taylor apprised the convention of the fact that Greensboro is about to begin the erection of a new city hall, in which we expect the future State conventions to be held, and extended the convention a hearty invitation to meet here in 1900. The invitation was greeted with great applause.

Of course all this was out of order, but it shows there is a strong sentiment against Raleigh as the Democratic convention town. But this incident was not the only occurrence in Raleigh yesterday that signified a desire for a change of location. Many Democrats from all sections of the State were heard to remark, on the streets and in the hotel lobbies, that if Greensboro desired the next State convention she could secure it.

And the accommodations and arrangements in Raleigh are not the only things complained of.

Highwayman Roberts Matthews, colored, who wounded Deputy Sheriff W. B. Fash at Brownsville, Tenn., was killed by a pursuing posse yesterday.

GAUGHT IN A DEATH TRAP

A GREAT BUILDING COLLAPSED THIS MORNING.

Twelve Persons Taken out Terribly Injured, and Four are Still Buried.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Pittsburg, April 12—A terrible disaster occurred here about half past nine this morning, by which it is feared many lives are lost. The large four story warehouse of Armstrong & McKeiver, whitelead works, collapsed. It seemed to sink into the ground. It is reported that thirty persons were in the building and all went down with the crash. The structure seemed to give way all at once and sank as if by an earthquake. Moel Casper and D. C. Bernard were killed outright, both salesmen of the firm. Four persons are still buried in the ruins, believed to be dead. Twelve of the injured were taken out alive but terribly injured. One wall fell into the street burying two men. The collapse was due to the removal of a partition wall of the adjoining building. The foundations were not sufficiently supported and the rain yesterday caused the earth to soften and crumble.

MADE A WHOLE NIGHT OF IT.
IN SESSION FROM 3 YESTERDAY TO 8:40 THIS MORNING.

The Ticket Completed This Morning Sleepy Eyed Delegates Tell a Great Tale.

Sleepy-eyed delegates from the convention came in this morning, having left the hall about the time the wrangle was on over the nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

After that time the other nominations, as given in another place, were made. Besides these, Lee S. Overman and D. H. McLean were nominated electors at large, and J. S. Carr, E. J. Hale, W. E. Moore and T. A. Jones, delegates at large to the national convention.

Next to the Consumer is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.
